FISCHERLEHNER

Rudi Fischerlehner was born in 1977 in Austria.

He studied classical percussion at the Conservatorie of Linz for a short period in 1991/92, before directing his energies to the jazz and independent music scene, playing in several bands.

1995 he moved to Vienna and started to play in the band BLENDWERK, which released 4 records and toured Austria, Italy, Germany and Switzerland. He also founded the Jazz Quartet CHAOS IN ORDER.

He recorded two CDs with guitarist/composer Daniel Pabst's trio KONTEXT and the band played at the 2004 "Jazzfest Vienna".

He also toured with Blues-guitarist Wheatbread Johnson from Chicago.

He has lived in Berlin since 2002 and leads his own Quartet PINX, which plays his jazz and drum'n'bass influenced compositions.
